Product Description

Multimedia System And ABS Integrated Heavy Duty Truck Tractor For Direct Purchase

Product features:

Safe and reliable: It has a high-strength frame and is equipped with active and passive safety protection devices such as ABS as standard; some models are also equipped with lane departure warning system, front collision warning system and 360-degree blind spot monitoring to improve driving safety.

Appearance design: The modeling is strong and the streamlined design is full of dynamism, which not only shows the rugged momentum of European and American trucks, but also conforms to the aesthetic viewpoints of Oriental people.

Product usage:

It has a powerful and stable power chain, such as Weichai six-cylinder engines, Fast manual gearboxes, etc., and the maintenance mileage of the engine, box and bridge is long, and the wheel side of the axle adopts a maintenance-free design, which can reduce the cost of using the vehicle.

The vehicle excels in detail processing, such as the double hydraulic strut design, large-area thermal insulation cotton, regular line layout, and more dense and solid wiring harness bundling method, which can enhance the driving experience and adapt to harsh working conditions.

Product advantages:

High comfort: The cab adopts four-point airbag shock absorption, and the seat has multiple adjustment functions, which can effectively reduce the fatigue of long-distance driving; the vehicle has rich internal configurations, such as multimedia large screen, automatic air conditioning, etc. Some models are also equipped with thoughtful designs such as glasses box and makeup mirror; the instrument panel is reasonably designed, allowing the driver to clearly control the vehicle information.

Lightweight design: By adopting a variety of lightweight technologies and materials, the vehicle body weight is reduced while ensuring the carrying capacity, and the transportation efficiency is improved.
