Product Description

Product features:

The hydraulic lifting device of the small hydraulic lifting garbage truck can realize stepless speed regulation and precise operation.

The vehicle adopts advanced garbage compression technology to increase the garbage loading capacity.

Equipped with a high-quality shock absorption system to reduce the impact of bumps on the equipment while the vehicle is traveling.

The garbage collection box is equipped with an anti-overflow device to avoid garbage overflow.

Product usage:

Used for garbage collection and transportation in urban sanitation integration projects.

In the process of centralized garbage collection in rural areas to improve the efficiency of garbage treatment.

It can be used to transfer garbage in small garbage treatment plants to ensure complete transportation of garbage.

Product advantages:

The lifting device with stepless speed regulation can be operated precisely according to the actual situation, improving the flexibility of operation.

Refuse compression technology increases the volume of single transportation and reduces transportation costs.

Shock absorption system protects the equipment and extends its service life.

Anti-overflow device keeps the vehicle and the surrounding environment clean and reduces secondary pollution.
