Product Description

Product features:

Strong power, equipped with high-performance engine, provides sufficient power for compression and transportation, guaranteeing efficient operation.

Adopting advanced hydraulic compression system, stable operation, high compression force, can effectively compact all kinds of garbage and reduce the volume of garbage.

The loading compartment has good sealing, preventing the garbage from leaking and emitting odor during transportation, ensuring a clean environment.

Equipped with large-size tires with strong grip, it adapts to various road conditions and guarantees the vehicle to drive normally in different environments.

Product usage:

Widely used in city streets to collect residents' living garbage at regular intervals to keep the urban environment clean and tidy. In industrial parks, it is responsible for cleaning up all kinds of wastes produced by industrial production to ensure the environmental health of the park.

Used in urban garbage transfer station, the collected garbage will be compressed twice, which is convenient for subsequent transportation to garbage treatment plant.

Product advantages:

Strong power and efficient compression system, improve the efficiency of garbage disposal, reduce the number of transportation, reduce operating costs.

Good sealing effectively avoids secondary pollution, protects the urban environment and improves the quality of life of residents.

Large-size tires adapt to a variety of road conditions, ensuring transport safety and expanding the operating range.
