Product Description

Product features:

The storage bin of the refuse station has a smooth inner wall, making it easy to dump and clean up the waste, reducing residue, improving waste disposal efficiency and reducing labour costs.

The mobile system adopts hydraulic power steering, which is light and flexible, and can steer accurately even in narrow sites, expanding the scope of application and adapting to complex operating environments.

Product usage:

Applicable to residential communities, especially the elderly majority of neighbourhoods, to facilitate the use of residents, improve the quality of community services, enhance the sense of well-being of residents.

In logistics parks, it collects and handles waste packaging materials, broken goods and other logistics rubbish to ensure smooth logistics and improve logistics efficiency.

Used in temporary rubbish collection points at the end of city streets and lanes, to quickly solve the problem of rubbish accumulation, maintain the cleanliness of the city and show the city style.

Product advantages:

Smooth inner wall reduces the difficulty of cleaning, improves operational efficiency, reduces labour costs and improves economic efficiency.

Hydraulic power steering improves manoeuvrability, expands the scope of application, adapts to complex operating environments, and improves operational flexibility.
