Product Description

Product features:

Equipped with Dongfeng customized high-power engine, with strong power output, it can easily cope with steep slopes in mines and heavy-duty transportation.
Equipped with high ratio gearbox, smooth gear switching, flexible adjustment according to different road conditions and loads, ensuring stable operation of the vehicle.
It adopts double fuel tank design, which reduces refueling frequency and ensures long time continuous operation.

Product Advantage:

Used in metal mining, transporting the excavated ore from the mining surface to the ore dressing plant, ensuring the efficient transfer of the ore.
In large-scale coal mines, it undertakes long-distance transportation of coal, transporting coal from underground or mining area to coal washing plant.
Serving in sand and gravel mines, transporting mined sand and gravel aggregates to the crushing and processing area.

Product usage:

Strong power makes the vehicle climb slopes effortlessly when fully loaded, improving transportation efficiency and shortening the transportation cycle.
The high ratio gearbox is suitable for all kinds of complex road conditions, reducing the probability of vehicle failure and lowering maintenance costs.
Dual fuel tank design ensures long time and stable operation of the vehicle, avoiding stoppage due to lack of fuel, and improving the overall operational efficiency.
