Product Description

Product features:

Equipped with high-flow hydraulic lifting system, the lifting speed is fast, which can complete the unloading action in a short time and improve the operation efficiency.

The carriage adopts forward tilting design, unloading more thoroughly and reducing material residue.

Intelligent unloading control system is installed, which can automatically adjust the pressure of hydraulic system according to the weight of materials and the tilting angle of the carriage to realize accurate unloading.

Product usage:

In non-ferrous metal mines, unloading concentrate and tailings quickly to improve the efficiency of the beneficiation process. Used in phosphate, potash and other chemical mines, unloading the mined ore to the processing area quickly, to ensure the timely supply of chemical raw materials.

In the transfer station of mines, efficiently unload all kinds of ores for subsequent classification and transportation.

Product advantages:

Fast lifting system and reasonable carriage design greatly shorten the unloading time, increase the number of daily transportation trips, and improve economic efficiency.

Intelligent unloading control system ensures safe and accurate unloading and reduces material waste and equipment loss.

Efficient unloading capacity improves the overall production efficiency of the mine and creates greater value for mining enterprises.
